OBJECTIVE

My name is Chris and I'm an aspiring graphic/concept artist! I have strong technical skills in both traditional and digital mediums, and I am capable of both realistic and stylized art. My passion lies in video games, anime, and manga!

I'm currently enrolled in a Master's of Science in Electrical and Computer Engineering. I have a Bachelor's of Science in the same field from UCLA and currently have experience in circuit design, computer graphics, machine learning, and AI, so I'm also very in touch with the technology of our modern world. Thanks for your consideration!
